Summer is Dubai 2014

www.summerisdubai.com

As a year round destination Dubai always hits the spot. With a rich cultural heritage – studded with festivals and entertainment, endless shopping & dining options or relaxing beach escapes, it's easy to see why Dubai is welcoming more and more UK visitors between June & August each year. Escape the unpredictable UK summer showers and enjoy a world class holiday for all the family at extraordinary value in Dubai, where the possibilities are endless...

DINING OUT & ENTERTAINMENT

As if your visit to the galleries wasn't visually stimulating enough, visit one of the world class eateries, where the cuisine is more than just a feast for the eyes. A high standard of cuisine doesn't necessarily mean high prices, with thousands of restaurants in Dubai ranging from authentic Emirati street food to gourmet dining, there's something on offer for every palette and budget.

Food is a fundamental part of the lifestyle in Dubai and this is apparent in particular, at the weekend, of which Friday is the first day. Friends and families alike gather to enjoy the food and themed entertainment laid on throughout the city. Try the Friday Brunch at Spectrum on One at Fairmont Dubai or the more informal offering at Double Decker at Al Murooj Rotana to name just two.

Along with the plethora of restaurants, Dubai also has a vibrant nightlife and an ever expanding calendar of events. Whether you want to enjoy a cool sea-breeze and shisha in Calibar or the Jetty Lounge at One&Only Royal Mirage, watch sports at Barasti or treat yourself to some cocktails at Neos at Address Downtown and maybe even sample some live music from some world-renowned artists, there's sure to be a way to make your evening a memorable one in Dubai.

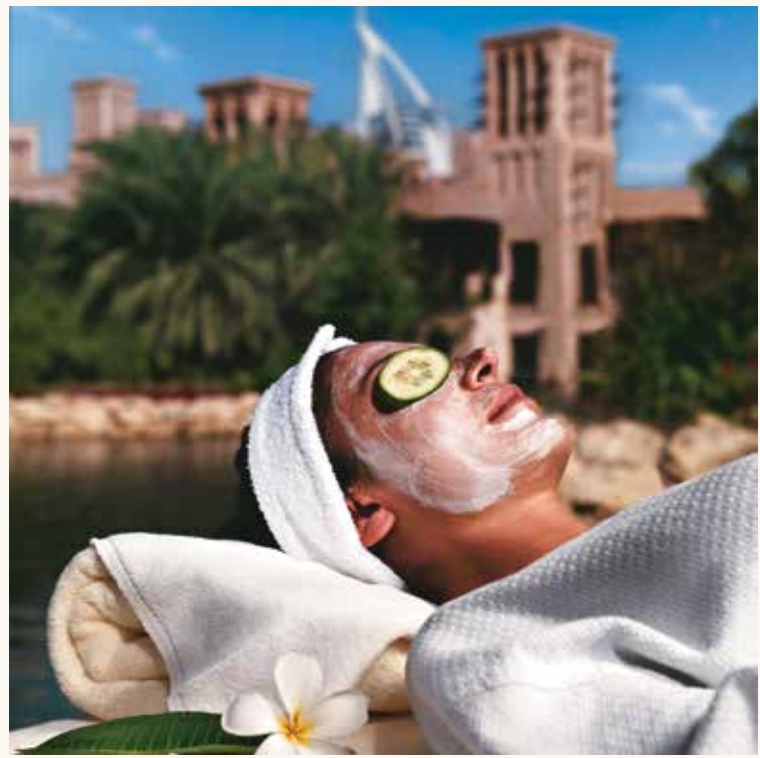

RELAXATION & SHOPPING

After enjoying the evening's pleasures in Dubai, what better way than to spend some time relaxing. Dubai is home to a wide range of fantastic spas, many of which have unique themes, styles and concept treatments. Spa treatments are equally global with specialists practicing techniques from Bali, Sweden, Turkey, Thailand, China and beyond. Try the magnificent Talise Ottoman Spa at Jumeirah Zabeel Saray or the Lime Spa at the Desert Palm Resort.

From one type of therapy to another, retail! Put simply, Dubai is a shopper's paradise, from the impressive Dubai Mall and Mall of the Emirates, the modern and traditional souks to the unbelievable value of the Dubai Outlet Mall, you'll be sure to be heading home with more than just memories from your holiday. Shopping is such an integral part of Dubai that every summer you can experience the Dubai Summer Surprises – a festival of shopping! Designed with families in mind, this month long festival sees discounts and promotions at over 6000 shops around the city.

If you've got the energy after shopping till you drop, then why not play a round of golf, take a desert safari or experience one of the multitudes of watersports available from Parasailing to Kayaking, it's an exceptional way of cooling down in the summer sun.

BEACHES & FAMILY FUN

Dubai has earned a reputation as a complete family destination with some excellent formats of entertainment to keep the entire family not just entertained, but inspired and excited. All the major resorts offer excellent childcare facilities to allow everybody to have time to relax but it's the attractions for the whole family which sets it apart. The water parks including Aquaventure at the Atlantis the Palm and Wild Wadi offer exceptional value for family fun and educational attractions.

Many of the cities shopping malls also host a number of spectacular family entertainment & attractions. Visit Ski Dubai – the Middle East's first indoor ski resort. Take a trip to KidZania – "a city made for children and run by children", offering them the chance to take 'real jobs' in a pint-sized world. Both adults and children alike will revel in the gaming available at Sega Republic or visit the Dubai Aquarium to learn about our oceans.

No family trip to Dubai would be complete without a trip to one of the many beaches available, either at resort or public beaches. Whether public or private the beaches are safe, clean, offer plenty of shade and of course access to the waters of Arabian Gulf. On the private beaches, don't be surprised to be greeted by a member of staff offering you a refreshing spray or water, fresh fruit, even a helpful clean of the sunglasses.

CULTURE & THE ARTS

While being possibly one of the most progressive cities on the planet, Dubai's roots lie firmly in the traditional. Nowhere is this more evident than in the heartbeat of the city, the Creek. Take a break from the sunshine with a water taxi to the gold, spice & textile souks. Discover the importance of Pearl diving in the region or visit the Sheikh Mohammed Centre for Cultural Understanding and immerse yourself in local history and Islamic culture, not to mention trying some of the traditional local cuisine. Galleries can also be found all over the city from the Al Quoz district to the Dubai International Financial District.
