WORLDWIDE

For the independent traveller a Self Drive holiday to Cuba is an excellent way to see the island. Itineraries are bespoke and you can explore as much of the country as you like. Driving off the beaten track will allow you to see day to day Cuban life. It is possible to drive the length of Cuba, taking in places such as Santiago, Baracoa, Bay of Pigs, Cienfuegos and Santa Clara. Finish off your holiday in Spanish colonial capital Havana or the chilled beach resorts of Varadero or the Cayos.

DAY 1 - Arrive Havana

Met on arrival at Havana airport and transfer to the Plaza Hotel for a three nights on a Bed & Breakfast basis. Alternative hotels are also available.

DAY 4 - Havana to Vinales Valley

Collect your hire car and set out towards the Vinales Valley (approx 2-3 hours). On arrival, transfer to the Hotel La Ermita for the next two nights on a Bed & Breakfast basis.

DAY 6 - Vinales Valley to Trinidad

Continue on to Trinidad (approx 7 hour) for the next three nights at the Hotel Las Cuevas on a Half Board basis.

DAY 9 - Trinidad to Varadero

Drive from Trinidad to Varadero (approx 5 hours). On arrival, Drop your car off and transfer to the Villa Cuba Hotel for the next six nights on an All Inclusive basis.

DAY 15 - Return to UK

Transfer to Havana airport for your return flight to the UK.

With car hire, there are a few points to bear in mind:

- Cars tend to come with a full tank of petrol, for which you will be charged when you collect the vehicle. Take it back empty to avoid losing out!
- A local insurance is needed to be paid in Cuba – approximately US$23 per day.
- You will need to leave a refundable deposit when you collect the car. It's straightforward to do this with a credit card.
- You must be over 21 years of age and hold a valid driving licence that entitles you to drive in Cuba.
